

MLK Institute

for Community and Social Change

Lucero “Lucy” Aradillas currently serves as the Assistant Director of Multicultural Affairs at Armstrong State University. A native of Houston, Texas, Aradillas was raised in Monterrey, Mexico until her family settled in Kennesaw, GA at the age of 9. She received her Bachelor of Science in Political Science from Kennesaw State University.

She also received her Master's degree from Armstrong State University in Professional Communication and Leadership in 2015.

Passionate about student success and retention programs for underrepresented students, particularly Latino students, she is currently pursuing her Doctor of Education in Educational Leadership from Georgia Southern University. She has lived in Savannah since 2013 with her husband and son.